

Republic of Texas Museum History Symposium Annual Fundraiser

February 25, 2023 - 10:00 to 2:00 pm

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas History Center 810 San Marcos Street - Austin, Texas 78762

Speakers: Dr. Frank de la Teja speaking on "Tejanos and the Texas Revolutionary Experience"

~

Dr. David Carlson from Bexar County Archives speaking on "A fine place for men and dogs, but hell on women and horses: a Texas women's history."

Supporting this fundraiser will contribute to the opening of the Republic of Texas Museum this coming summer...

Cost: $85.00 a seat...

includes morning coffee, juice, pastry & lunch

Due to limited seating, please reserve your seat now!

Please register on the website DRTinfo.org or contact Margaret at DRT HQ 512-339-1997 ext. #6 Limited parking at the building, on the street, and at the Ebenezer Baptist Church parking lot at San Marcos Street and 10th Street.

Additional Parking Information:

Venue parking is limited. There is paid parking available nearby at the City of Austin parking spaces (see Park ATX app) on San Marcos Street, Embassy Drive, and elsewhere. Those with "Handicapped Stickers or Hangtags can park in their spaces at no cost but must observe time limits. There is also paid parking down the street at the Central Baptist Church. A few blocks away, parking is available at the Texas State Cemetery. For your safety and the safety of other Republic of Texas History Center visitors, please use the pedestrian gate location (near the north side) for all drop-offs and pickups. Do not block the entrance and exit gate locations! The Republic of Texas History Center is not responsible for cars parked in front of the building.

